

Political Jobs For Attorneys Open Here

WASHINGTON. (Copley Press Leased Wire)—Illinois Republican congressmen are carefully scanning the so-called "plum list" of jobs available to the deserving faithful in their home state, released last week by the civil service commission.

A total of 808 were counted in Illinois that may be filled by rooting out New and Fair Deal holdovers from patronage places not protected by civil service.

For example there are five attorneys jobs at the Joliet Arsenal paying from $3,410 to $7,040, and a consultant's spot at $50 a day plus expenses. Between the top and bottom attorney places are three at $4,205, $5,940 and $5,060.

THERE ARE nine openings in Springfield, ranging from an agricultural position at $5,060 to three assistant U. S. district attorneys at $5,940, and $5,060 for two.

But three deputy directorships in the U. S. savings bond division of the treasury department, two at $7,040 and one at $5,940 and a U. S. secret service special agent at $4,620 will be retained for a long time to come, despite pruning of federal payrolls by the Eisenhower administration.
